PROJECTS

Crypto Insight [FYP] Next.js · MongoDB Atlas · AI Embeddings · Vector Search · Express

AI-powered crypto news platform — collects real-time and historical news, generates semantic embeddings, and surfaces historically similar market events.

Owned the entire backend pipeline: real-time news ingestion via third-party APIs, data enrichment, and MongoDB storage.

Generated AI embeddings per news item and implemented Atlas Vector Search to detect semantically similar past crypto events.

4-person team; solely responsible for backend architecture and all data-processing logic.

Thumblify Next.js · React · Tailwind CSS · Gemini AI API · Node.js

AI thumbnail generator — users describe intent naturally; the app constructs optimized prompts and renders a live YouTube-style preview before export.

Built with Next.js — single codebase handles frontend UI and backend API routes.

Designed a YouTube player mockup component for real-time thumbnail preview before download.

Abstracted prompt complexity from the user; the app generates optimized AI prompts from simple inputs.
